

An artistic illustration of several cocktails. In the top left, a tall flute glass contains a bubbly orange drink with a white foam head and a garnish of red berries. To its right, a shallow coupe glass holds a dark red liquid. Below the flute glass, a martini glass is filled with a golden-yellow liquid. In the bottom left, another coupe glass contains a reddish-orange drink. On the far left, a tall glass with a dark red liquid is partially visible. The background is a light beige with soft shadows cast by the glasses.
